Flyer at the annual meeting

Post a brief comment on the web site if the organization's non-profit status can be determined

The East End will not participate in a neighborhood chipper program, to lower the foothills fire hazard, this year. EENA may apply for a grant for 2014

This spring there will be goats on the Castle Rock Reserve to help lower fuels for fire protection. The project is funded by the City of Boise. Julia Grant from Parks and Recreation sent a letter to confirm funding

Financial report: The bank balance remains the same as was reported during the February meeting: $859.75

Old Business:

Discussion occurred to help inform the guests on the status of stop signs. The Board agreed to ask John Wassen from the City of Boise to come to the annual Meeting.

The EENA president receives an accident report every month.

Website

Maureen gave a report on the status of the website including site visit statistics. She is testing a new calendar. There was a discussion on categorizing events to include on the calendar. The categories might include Donna Larson Park activities and neighborhood venue events.

Board members were also asked to submit high quality photos for the website

There was a discussion about having a logo for EENA and the possibility of a logo contest

The logo will be discussed at the annual meeting

Annual Meeting: May 1 at Roosevelt School Discussion about what organizations should attend and who should speak. There will be tables set up in the back of the room for displays and flyers. The Board agreed that there should be a report on the Donna Larson Park and another report on the Broadway Bridge.

Bob will put together a draft agenda and email it to the full Board

Broadway Bridge: Brief discussion. Lee, Sandy and Deanna attended the first of three meetings

Guest Erik Kingston talked about the possibility of an Idaho Stock Exchange

Next meeting is April 23 at 7pm in the Adams school teachers lounge

Adjournment at 8:15
